STUDIO FOOTBALL 19 ANNOUNCES GOLD EDITION SKINS FOR TEAM OF THE HOUR AND TEAM OF THE DAY FIFA 19 is launching with 22 Team of the Hour and 17 Team of the Day gold edition packs. Each of the seven Team of the Day gold edition packs are themed around the original kits of each new team joining the Premier League. For example, the Aston Villa kit is the inspiration for the Ludogorets kit in pack six, while the Everton kit is the basis for the Newcastle kit in pack seven. FIFA 19 also sees the return of the Player of the Month and Team of the Week features. CREATE YOUR OWN PLAYER AND TEAM FIFA 19 brings the Create a Player tool to FIFA Ultimate Team. This allows you to design your very own player, from your team's kit and kit number through to their playing style. As with previous versions of FIFA, you can design your player through the system's free 3D slider bar, or you can use character-based sliders to design a character on the console. The new Randomization feature means you'll be able to receive a much better starting team if your FUT account is inactive or if you play a lot of Team of the Week games. New to the system is the Challenge Friends feature. You can now take your team to a friend's game by tapping a Challenge Friend icon, and they can invite you to a game in return. The Challenge Friend feature is available in both the Xbox Live and PlayStation Network version of FIFA 19. Every day on Xbox, you can visit the FIFA 19 Live Level in the Xbox Store, scroll down and pick a Team of the Day to view. There are now two new Team of the Day kits in the Xbox Live store. The new kits are presented with a cutscene of the player. PLAY ONLINE WITH THE FIFA 19 PATCH FIFA 19 boasts the largest number of new gameplay features since FIFA 18, including the introduction of "Swerve Controls," which can be used to accelerate your player towards an on-ball or off-ball run, dribble or pass. The Create a Player feature has also been given a major overhaul, with new player concepts, weights, and clothing. For the first time in the series, "Teamtalk" has been added to FIFA 19. The new free-kick system has been enhanced

What's new:

- Bring back interceptions. Attackers or defenders that make a run to the offensive player will be more likely to pick up possession of the ball and initiate FUT Draft Mode.
- FUT Draft Mode.
- FIFA Training Room. The FIFA Training Room brings training to life - with a host of new features and modes - and offers an immersive and fun environment for players and coaches to hone their skills.
- Draft Pick Competitions.
- FIFA Ultimate Team Manager.
- HD Matchday. HD Matchday is now more like real-life football. Try your skills with multiple camera angles, speed up replays and see the pitch as you see it on TV. The game also provides more accurate weather information and can accelerate the speed of the pitch to accelerate gameplay and create a realistic matchday experience.
- New commentary team. The whole game will feature an expertly-crafted authentic commentary, with more voiceover options for fans, more gameplay insights and more calls from Kevin Keegan and Martin Tyler, alongside the new update to the studio featuring commentary from former players, coaches, journalists and broadcasters.
- Dynamically persistent player class weighting.
- Live Player Names.
- Improved tackling. Tactics and transfers contributed to making Championship and League One more competitive.
- New Sidesheet. Improve your squad with player scouting to find new and old hidden talent. The new creative Sidesheet is designed to bring the action home by featuring a timer to motivate all-action, no-touch gameplay and allows players to focus on defense, counter-attacking and other tactics.
- Men's UEFA Super League.
- New passing animation. New animations for the pass to the far post (especially for corner kicks), long passes from the halfway line, and goalkeeper distribution. Players are more likely to strike the ball on the run.

- National team kits. A new look for the men's and women's kits.
