With HQ on the battle front, your job is to direct your forces by ordering units into battle, and then keep them there, even when the battle is over. You must apply a "balanced but decisive" approach to every engagement. Whether you play as the Axis or the Allies, Unit & Doctrine Control is available, giving you the ability to change doctrine settings at will, providing an authentic WWII combat experience that requires tactical skill to win. The game features a compelling WW2 era fantasy setting where players fight on a large variety of World War 2 era battlegrounds. Initially asymmetric one-on-one "War" and "Duel" game modes feature three player teams, with up to 64 players per game. Set during the period of Operation OVERLORD (beginning 06 June 1944), Europe In Ruins offers persistent cross-battle XP, hundreds of doctrine selections, and an ongoing PvP warmap campaign. Decide which of 12 battlefield doctrines to follow, then customize your company by selecting from a range of units and upgrades available. What's new:

Hall Gallery - opening The Long Eye will open its doors to the public for the first time in its former location, in the gorgeous new town hall and culture centre that opened in 2017. The gallery is curated by Mark Abbott, who has been Short Listing the 2017 Festival of Black British Art, working as an art critic, collector and curator with great success over the past ten years. Award-winning Asian artist Safi Anjum OBE has created a striking new work for the gallery, an original etching in his usual rich, noisy collection of startling, humorous and seductive imagery, which will lend a dynamic new perspective on Black British and African history. What's happening? The new Festival of Black British Art takes place in the new Longsight Town Hall and Culture Centre in Manchester throughout September and October. This year's festival will include hundreds of artists, writers, musicians, performers and makers, transforming traditional 'top of the bill' venues like Warehouse Project, for intimate evenings, residencies, talks and public events. Many of the artists have exhibited in the Festival of Black British Art in previous years. We're also thrilled to have a number of visual artists and curators return this year. Find out more about the works appearing at the Festival. More information will be coming soon, so keep in touch! Visit our page for updates on the festival. Who's who Safi Anjum OBE (Birmingham) Safi Anjum's paintings and drawings often appear as cover illustrations for magazines like i-D, The Face, Time Out, i-D, GQ, The Saville Journal, Picture Point, Style Weekly, Obvious, The Big Issue and Yours among others.
