State Unemployment Insurance Program - For all-state severance The Department of Labor is planning to expand its $200,000 state unemployment insurance program to help laid-off state workers, with a pilot program to begin next spring and later expanded statewide. The full impact of the disaster is yet to be determined but private and public sector jobs together are expected to see a reduction of around 4% in the first quarter of 2016, according to Deloitte Consulting... The state program, which is funded by employer contributions and state revenues, covers layoffs that result from state or local government shutdowns, as well as layoffs of state workers following state.
